A library is a place with books. You have to be quiet in a library. People need quiet to focus. Reading can be fun. A good book is all you need. It is easy to find one in a library. All you need is a library card and you can take a book home. Not for too long though. Other people may want to read it too. Libraries only let you keep books for a little while. You may have to pay if you keep a book too long. This is to make sure people return the books.

1.	What is true about libraries? Choose TWO that are correct.  A. It is loud in a library. B. You can borrow books from a library. C. You cannot read books in a library. D. Libraries have lots of books.
2.	Why do you need to return the books that you checked out?  A. All you need is a library card. B. Other people want to read them. C. The books belong to you. D. The library needs good books.

Read the passage and answer the following question(s).

When Winter Comes

1

When winter comes, it gets cold outside. When people go outside, they wear warm clothes. Animals cannot put on warm clothes. But they do have a few ways to stay warm in the winter.

2

Many birds fly to warmer places for the winter. So do some butterflies. They stay in the warm places until spring. Then, they fly back home.

3

There are other ways animals get through cold winters. Some animals, like bears, sleep through all the winter. To get ready, they eat a lot of food in the fall. They also grow thicker, warmer fur. Then they find a cozy den to sleep in. In the spring, they wake up.

4

One thing is true for most animals. Life gets better when spring comes at last.

3.	What do birds do in the spring?  A. find a den  B. go back home  C. find more food  D. go to warmer places
4.	When does life get better for most animals?  A. fall  B. winter  C. spring  D. summer

Early one morning, Molly Monkey was swinging in the jungle. She was swinging as fast as she could.

All of a sudden, Molly Monkey swung right into her baby brother Miles. Miles began to cry.

"Molly, watch where you are going," said Molly Monkey's mommy. "Slow down when you are swinging from tree to tree."

"I guess you're right, Mommy," agreed Molly. "I sure don't want to hurt baby Miles again. From now on, I will slow down and watch where I am going."
