Richland Redhawks Cross Country

OPEN TO ALL 3rd – 5th GRADERS

The goal of Redhawk Running Club is to use the sport of running as a vehicle to teach our students about fitness, discipline, teamwork, and the joy of living an active lifestyle.

We will host a Meet and Greet Practice on Saturday, August 14th at 9:00 AM at Richland Elementary School. We will meet by the new playground behind the school. We ask that parents stick around for practice to glean some information and have a better understanding of the cadence of a cross country practice. We likewise plan to be available to answer questions after school on Thursday, August 12th by the new playground.

Approximate Costs

$40 (paid directly to MYA to cover the race season and insurance coverage for both practice and races)

$20 for a Racing Singlet (Tank) ((paid through a local screen printer))

$20 to cover incidentals, TEAMSNAAP membership, and race snacks (paid to Coach Boswell)

Should you have concerns about costs, there is a potential waiver.

Required Documents for ALL runners:

Shelby County Physical Exam Form. Must be signed by a physician.

Shelby County Schools Concussion Statement

Shelby County Schools Cardiac Arrest Statement

Richland Elementary XC Waiver

(All Available at Meetings with the Coach or via email)

Please note that forms must be turned in before your student can practice.
