

Dr. Roscoe Brown

Dr. Roscoe Brown was one of the Tuskegee Airmen and a squadron commander of the 100th Fighter Squadron of the 332nd Fighter Group. He graduated from the Tuskegee Flight School and served in the U.S. Army Air Forces in Europe during World War II.

After the war, Captain Brown earned his doctoral degree. He later became a professor at New York University and directed their Institute of Afro-American Affairs. He was President of Bronx Community College from 1977 to 1993 and then director for the Center for Education Policy at the City University of New York.

You too have the potential to be the next great military defense fighter – If Roscoe Brown can do it, so can you!