

1st Grade Newsletter

Week of September 7-11

What We're Learning:

Reading

SWBAT demonstrate an understanding of key details given in the text IOT ask and answer questions.

Phonics

SWBAT isolate and pronounce initial, medial vowel, and final sounds IOT read and write words.

SWBAT define words by category or attributes IOT demonstrate an understanding of word relationships.

Math

SWBAT count on from any given number to ten IOT make a connection between addition and subtraction.

Science and Social Studies

SWBAT observe the sun, moon, and stars IOT explain what causes the pattern of day and night.

SWBAT understand their community and state IOT describe the cultural aspects of a place.

High Frequency Words

this	is
my	look
little	where
here	play
we	the

Terrific Tigers

Students who have showed their best work!

Newcomb 1-01: Carson Dandridge

Booth 1-02: Ka'myia Mills

Congdon 1-03: Austin Coburn

Brock 1-04: Disney Banks

Important Date

Sept. 7

No School
Labor Day

Homework and Test

- Homework Due Friday in Class Notebook
- Phonics, Reading, and Social Studies Test Friday Sept. 11 in Assignments