

American Way Middle School School - Home Compact

As a component of the school level parental involvement plan, the school- home compact, jointly developed with parents, describes how parents, the entire American Way Middle School staff, and students will:

- Share responsibility for improved student achievement.
- Build a partnership to help children achieve the State's high standards.

School's Responsibility

I, as the chief stakeholder in the education of children at American Way Middle School promise to commit to the following:

- Provide a high-quality curriculum in a supportive and effective learning environment to meet the State's student academic achievement standards.
- Create a safe, positive environment conducive to learning.
- Communicate with and work with parents as equal partners, implement and coordinate programs that will bridge the gap between the home and the school.
- Provide full opportunities for the participation of parents with limited English proficiency (in a language parents can understand), and disabilities and parents of migratory children.
- Monitor students' and teachers' attendance.
