

Noisy, Buffer, and Quiet Interest Area Breakdown

Noisy Areas (these areas typically create more noise during natural play)	Buffer Areas (these areas can be used to help separate the noisy areas from the quiet areas)	Quiet Areas (these areas tend to be quieter and require more focus and attention)
Blocks	Art	Cozy Area
Dramatic Play	Discovery	Writing
Music and Movement	Foundational Literacy	Library
	Sand and Water	Listening (with headphones)
	Toys and Games	Technology (with headphones)
		Writing

Reference: ECERS-3, page 18